

BROCCOLI

Why does broccoli even exist? For one thing, it's gross. For another thing, it's disgusting. And for a third thing, it's ugly. Well, someone has to say it. Broccoli is ugly. Like, think about French fries. French fries are a vegetable too. But they're not gross . . . unless they're cold. And they're totally not ugly. I mean, hello – they're golden. In what universe is gold not a good thing? And did I mention broccoli tastes bad? Yeah, basically broccoli has nothing at all going for it. Except that my Mom likes it. And tries to make me eat it. Did I mention that broccoli is disgusting?
