Directors' Resumes

Jennifer Ellis is a certified vocal educator and performer in the Baton Rouge area. After graduating from Vanderbilt University and LSU, she began her career teaching music at McKinley Middle Magnet School. In addition to directing the Greater Baton Rouge Children's Chorus, Mrs. Ellis is the former Chorus Master for Opera Louisiane and works as a choral clinician and voice coach. As a performer, Mrs. Ellis has sung professionally with the Baton Rouge Symphony, Louisiana Philharmonic, and Louisiana Sinfonietta. An award-winning actress with Theatre Baton Rouge, she has played a variety of principal roles including Anna in The King and I, Eliza Doolittle in My Fair Lady, and Guinevere in Camelot. Offstage she has provided music direction for Kiss Me Kate, Oliver!, Forever Plaid, and Plaid Tidings, also at Theatre BR.

Jan Gerbrecht Dupre is an accomplished pianist, flutist, vocalist, composer and holds the certification of Teacher of Talented Music with the Louisiana State Department of Education. She serves as Director of Performing Arts at St. George Catholic School, teaches the SGS Bands, serves in Liturgical Music, teaches students in the SGS Piano Lab, and co-directs the SGS Musical Theatre Program. For the past 32 years, Jan has been on staff at Christ the King Catholic Church and Student Center on the L.S.U. Campus, where she holds the position of Director of Music for the Parish. Jan is pianist and vocalist with the Baton Rouge Jazz Ensemble and with her own professional quartet, Jan Dupre and the Gentlemen of Swing. She is a member of the Louisiana Association of Jazz Educators, a member of the Louisiana Music Educators Association, the Jazz Education Network, the Louisiana Flute Society, and the Louisiana Bandmasters Association. She also serves on the Executive Board of the Louisiana Association of Jazz Educators.
